

AHS Library

2016-17 Programming Guide

Teen Read Week

October 9-15

Read for the Fun Of It is the national theme this year. So let's do just that. We're going to read for the fun of it and throw in activities too.

TeenReaderCon

Saturday, October 22

A dynamic group of authors at the Shenendehowa Middle School campus.

<http://teenreadercon.weebly.com>

Look Past

November 10

Author Eric Devine will be sharing his books with students, including his newest.

Jacopo della Quercia

December 13 / 14

An expert on Shakespeare and Lincoln and a writer of adult and teen books on a variety of topics.

Anne Blankman

January 11

Interact with the author via Skype.
Read her books & come with questions!

Follow Us

Albany High School
Book Lovers Club

@AlbHSLibrary

Albany High Library

Albany High School
Library

Love & Its Enemy

All February

Love Valentine's Day? Do a blind date with a book. Hate it? We'll celebrate that too.

Illustrator

March 23

Marika McCoola will be a first for our Falcons. Come draw with her.

Library Week & Poetry Month

All April

Activities around poetry will culminate in a poetry café with readings.

Free Comic Book Day

Monday, May 8

Our yearly activities that celebrate and give away comic books, talk superheroes, and enjoy gaming.

Book Party

June 6 / After School

Includes activities, raffles, and books!

To Know

TED Talk Tuesday /

Once a month, join the librarians for a lunch session where you feed your mind and bellies

Bibliotherapy / Join the librarians as they share new, popular, or must-read titles

READ Day / Nothing but books and drinks all day. Unplug and enjoy the quiet

Tinkering / A bin of Legos, a puzzle, or a craft, come to the library to tinker away

Library Lock In / With pajamas on, we'll read until late into the night