#ReadLikeAFalcon

All year

The Falcon Library is excited to announce our new hashtag #ReadLikeAFalcon. Look for book recommendations, videos, and celebratory activities to celebrate reading.

Library After Dark

Nov 1, Jan 10, March 6

Relax with your friends in the library at night with games, movies, and challenges sponsored by the AHS Book Lovers Club. These annual evenings will take place three times this year at the high school library.

Aisha Saeed

November 6

Author of numerous books including Amal Unbound and Written in the Stars, Saeed will talk about writing, her life, sign books, and take questions especially about her new book out in 2020.

READ Day

Dec 20 & Feb 14

Sip some hot cocoa and spend time in the library free from distractions simply reading quietly. Bring your own book or pick one up when you come and be among readers.

Free Comic Book Day

May 4

Enjoy free comics, trivia, video games, tabletop games, and panels about pop culture and comics as a companion to National Free Comic Book Day celebrated on Saturday, May 2nd. Sponsored by the AHS Anime Club.

Shakespeare's Birthday

April 23

Known as The Bard, Shakespeare invented words in addition to writing poetry and plays. We'll honor his life's work with literary-inspired treats and activities to learn more about this literary legend.

#ReadLikeAFalcon is the library's new hashtag. This year your librarians will share what it means to read like a Falcon with book recommendation videos, displays, and activities. We'll highlight all the ways our Falcons are reading— in class, in clubs and sports, and in our spare time.
